Daniel is a true professional and always provides an accurate and detailed picture of any particular financial advisory network. He takes time to answer any important questions you may have and makes any difficult decisions easier by delivering insightful advice due to the wealth of experience he has. Furthermore, communicating with him is fantastic as he is always positive and relaxed. Thanks for all your help over the years!

Daniel and I worked together for a number of months whilst I was considering making the transition to work as an adviser overseas. Having worked internationally in financial services himself over the years, he was able offer objective and insightful information. Daniel was a pleasure to work with from start to finish and helped me to find the right position. I could not be more happy and highly recommend him.

Daniel is a man of high integrity and honesty as well as being a great professional. Key is his twenty years' offshore industry experience and very wide network, as well as his deep interest in the individual human being. All of this means he can place candidates with the best corporate match in terms of values, atmosphere and tone. He enjoys a high level of client satisfaction with placements and loyalty.

I know Daniel for more than 5 years now, and he is an absolute expert in recruiting people in the Financial Services arena, and an authentic professional and person who I am glad to know.

He is a sharp button who always gets things done, with his excellent knowledge of International market, and have been the first port of call for IFA's carrier movement advice for years.

I highly recommend him as a friendly, articulated and effective professional, and knowledgeable person who takes pride in doing his job most professionally.

Speaking to Daniel was the best thing that ever happened to my career in the IFA profession. He takes time to understand your strengths and weaknesses, goals and aspirations and matches that with the right company that will help you develop. He is a professional and very committed to his clients and delivers exactly what he pledges.

What I find absolutely amazing about his services is the fact that he constantly follows through to ensure you are happy with where you are after your placement, he doesn't leave you just there but rather ensures the company is treating you right and living up to their promises and your expectation.

I can confidently say I am a very happy client and friend of his. I recommend Daniel to any body looking for such a great opportunity.
